

Vogue's Gallery

1. JUSTIN W. COX is an abstract artist fuelled by surfing, music, art and fashion. He works in acrylics, smearing and scraping vibrant colours with unpredictable outcomes. His work is bold and positive, influenced by the energy and beauty of the sea. Pictured – "Spitpin' & Kickin'" – 36" x 36" Acrylic on wood panel. To find out more email jwcox929@gmail.com call (+1) 917 224 7001 visit www.justinwcox.com or Instagram @justinwcox_paintings

2. VERA TSEPKOVA is Ukraine based artist known for her large abstract expressionism paintings. Using paints and palette knives she manages to transfer the beauty and shades of nature in particular special ways – lightly, bravely, unobtrusively. The Lake" 120 x 90 cm, oil on linen. Discover more at www.veratsepkova.com or Instagram @itsmyart_vera

3. VICTORIA VERBAAN is a South African artist and illustrator. Her work is surreal and dreamy, with a focus on female form – a continuous search to understand what makes a woman so fragile and strong at once. "I paint strong yet sensitive women both provocative and quirky. My work is hopeful, raw and fantastical." Visit www.victoriaverbaan.com to see more of her work.

4. Sydney based artist STEPHEN SKINNER creates alluring balance of colour and texture in abstract form. His unique rhythmic style is influenced by nature, movement, shapes and sounds. Using various medium he explores composition through an energetic process of destruction and excavation. Available for private and public commissions. Visit www.steveskinner.net or email info@steveskinner.net

5. NICK GADE is an passionate abstract art painter who lives in Denmark. His dedication shines through his paintings and he gets his inspiration from the things that are often untold. He has found his imagery through his spiritual journey. With his empathy and creativity he manages to paint feelings. Discover more of his work at www.nickgade-art.com or Instagram @nick_gade_art

6. FABIAN MACCO is an abstract artist from Germany. He endeavours to switch off his conscious thinking to be only guided by the deeper layers of the subconsciousness, which often leads to unexpected results. Visit www.fabian-macco.de for more of his work.

7. GEOFFREY HENNING builds upon his background in fashion to inspire his beautiful hand-drawn illustrations. Using markers, pens and acrylic on premium stock paper and canvas, Geoffrey crafts his fashion illustrations which are also reprinted and available as note cards. Get in touch by visiting www.geoffreyhenning.com or email info@geoffreyhenning.com

8. Australian artist KATHY SMITH explores consciousness and dreams as it pertains to the landscape through emotions of hope, fear and desire. Her work combines oil painting, 2D/3D animation and installation. She is internationally published and exhibited; collections include Australian National Gallery and Sundance Film Archive. Visit www.kathymoods.org or email kathy@imoods.org

9. The artworks of award winning photographer and visual artist SVEN PFROMMER are often based on images taken on his journeys which he transforms using different paint and mixed media techniques. The final works are created on acrylic, metal, resin coated wood panel and canvas. Visit www.svenpfommer.com to explore his stunning editions or follow him on Instagram @sven_pfrommer

10. TAMMY FLYNN SEYBOLD's deceptively alluring oil paintings create unexpected tension between the lush volumes of the languid figures, and the abstract flatness of their deliquescence. See more on Instagram @arteachday or www.tammyflynnseybold.com

11. Berlin-based contemporary artist CLAUDIA FAUTH works in a variety of mediums including photography, sculpture and painting. Her works were exhibited at the Venice Biennale in 2015 and are represented in art collections worldwide. Featured: "Down by the River", 2016, oil on canvas, 170 x 130 cm. Her works are available to buy on www.1stdibs.com. To see more from Claudia Fauth visit her website www.claudia-fauth.com or follow her on Instagram @studioclaudiafauth

12. RODNEY DURSO, a New York based artist, works in mixed media; pulling his ideas from feelings, current events, design, architecture and music. Sometimes his work is created viscerally, at other times it's a deliberate, meditative practice. Visit www.rodneydurso.com

13. Forever Wild – 40" x 40". Colour and movement are the foundations of CARRIE MCINTYRE's technical practice. This mark making is spontaneous and practised. Her colour palette is the fundamental ground that unites all her work. Each painting is an expression of powerful feelings in her own life – never on a conscious level, but of an emotional and psychological space. Visit Instagram @carriemcintyreart and www.carriemcintyre.com to see more.

Vogue's Gallery

1. SABRINA RUPPRECHT shows us Africa through her paintbrush using Pink – the colour of sensitivity and compassion – for her incredibly detailed paintings of endangered animals. Based in South Africa, this artist supports wildlife conservation and her large scale, acrylic on canvas pieces have gained fast popularity among collectors internationally. Visit www.sabrinarupprecht.com or Instagram @sabrinarupprechtart

2. Each of KATHRYN SILVERA's pieces are created through her passion, focus and thoughtful deliberation. She uses between 5 and 25 layers of resin for each piece and often incorporates real gold, silver, copper and rose leaf as well as hand-ground pigments, crystals, gemstones and minerals into her works. 5% of her proceeds are donated to the Ocean Conservancy to help keep our oceans clean. Visit www.kathrynsilvera.com or email ksilverart@gmail.com to browse her work.

3. ISAURE BERTHOLET is a promising, newly discovered, young, abstract artist from Cognac, France. Her deeply touching acrylic creations allow us to travel with her worldwide and see through her eyes. She plays subtly with textures to share her feelings on canvas. Follow her on Instagram @isaurebertholet and discover more at www.isaurebertholet.com

4. Paintings that tell stories. Layers upon layer MERETE STEINVIK HAUGEN is creating a mysterious world for the observer to dive into. Merete debuted in 2015 with 100 paintings on one subject and she has already had exhibitions across seas and has become recognised as an artist. Merete is inspired by people, by untold stories. She wants to create a capture of this moment in time, a breath of true life. From Norway. Find her at Instagram @m_art.no or visit www.m-art.no

5. HENNIE VAN DE LANDE. Hennies' art is sold all over the world. With her famous quote – "It's not what you look at that matters, it's what YOU see" – Hennie shows her ability of letting go of meaning, enabling the viewer to create their own. Visit www.saatchiart.com/account/artworks/350780 or email hennievandelande@hotmail.com to get in touch.

6. RODNEY DURSO, a New York based artist, works in mixed media; pulling his ideas from feelings, current events, design, architecture and music. Sometimes his work is created viscerally, at other times it's a deliberate, meditative practice. Visit www.rodneydurso.com

7. Colour and movement are the foundations of CARRIE MCINTYRE's technical practice. This mark making is spontaneous and practised. Her colour palette is the fundamental ground that unites all her work. Each painting is an expression of powerful feelings in her own life – never on a conscious level, but of an emotional and psychological space. Visit Instagram @carriemcintyreart and www.carriemcintyre.com to see more.

8. Australian artist KATHY SMITH explores consciousness and dreams as it pertains to the landscape through emotions of hope, fear and desire. Her work combines oil painting, 2D/3D animation and installation. She is internationally published and exhibited; collections include Australian National Gallery and Sundance Film Archive. Visit www.kathymoods.org or email kathy@imoods.org

9. CLAUDIA FAUTH's art questions what it means to subscribe to scientific and mathematical belief systems yet be touched by spirituality. This is done by exploring her own spiritual beliefs through aesthetic forms. She works as a photographer and sculptor from her Berlin studio. Featured "Fractal World I", 2013, mixed media, 90 x 90 cm. To see more of Claudia Fauth's work visit her website www.claudia-fauth.com or follow her on Instagram @studioclaudiafauth

10. SIOBHAN COONEY is an abstract artist. Her bold, unique style uses colour as its main device to create original art. In this piece she has used fluid acrylics on hand made paper, adding stitching for depth, tone and detail. To see more of her colourful work, visit www.siohancooney.com or Instagram @siohancooneyartist

11. NICK GADE is a passionate abstract art painter who lives in Denmark. His dedication shines through his paintings and he gets his inspiration from the things that are often untold. He has found his imagery through his spiritual journey. With his empathy and creativity he manages to paint feelings. Discover more of his work at www.nickgade-art.com or Instagram @nick_gade_art

Vogue's Gallery

1. KATHRYN SILVERA's pieces evoke the wonder of the natural world. She uses up to 25 layers of resin for each piece and often incorporates real gold and silver leaf as well as hand-ground pigments, semi-precious stones and minerals into her works to help capture the beauty and feeling of a special destination. 5% of her proceeds are donated to the Ocean Conservancy to help keep our oceans clean. Visit www.kathrynsilvera.com or email info@kathrynsilvera.com to browse her work.

2. The work of the Czech artist LUCIE SVOBODA is a striking composition of dust, abstract shapes and lines. The way these visceral points of colour combine and contrast to create vast swirling bands of dream-like labyrinths or mesmerising geometric patterns draws you in, surrounding you with the artist's inspiration from every day to the profound. Featured: "IRIS", 100 x 100 cm, acrylic on canvas. Visit www.luciesvoboda.com Instagram @lucie_svoboda_art or email lucink.art@gmail.com to find out more.

3. ISAURE BERTHOLET is a promising, newly discovered, young, abstract artist from Cognac, France. Her deeply touching acrylic creations allow us to travel with her worldwide and see through her eyes. She plays subtly with textures to share her feelings on canvas. Follow her on Instagram @isaurebertholet and discover more at www.isaurebertholet.com

4. GEOFFREY HENNING builds upon his background in fashion to inspire his beautiful hand-drawn illustrations. Using markers, pens and acrylic on premium stock paper and canvas, Geoffrey crafts his fashion illustrations which are also reprinted and available as note cards. Get in touch by visiting www.geoffreyhenning.com or email info@geoffreyhenning.com

5. JUSTIN W. COX is an abstract artist, smearing vibrant colours with unpredictable outcomes. His work is featured in Tommy Hilfinger flagship stores globally. "Justin Cox is a creative force. His art has incredible energy and life. Our stores, offices and my home wouldn't be the same without his incredible paintings!" - Tommy Hilfinger. See here "Topsy Nautical Flag" - 18"x 24" Acrylic on paper. To find out more email jwcox929@gmail.com call (+1) 917 224 7001 visit www.justinwcox.com or Instagram @justinwcox_paintings

6. Kunst-Lux presented by THOMAS LUX, a Cologne based artist who develops his artworks in a landscape fragments technique. The picture is separated in fragments. This offers multiple interesting views in one artwork. Visit www.kunst-lux.de or Instagram @thomasluxde to see more.

7. SALLY MUSTANG and MITCH GOBEL are Australia based artists that explore creating with both the masculine and feminine energies. Expressed through an exploration of connection found between love, beauty and nature. Featured is one of their works 'My New World.' To explore more of their art and meaning behind the creations visit sallymustang.com mitchgobelresinart.com or Instagram @sallymustang @mitch.gobel

8. MATTHIAS BRANDNER. The main emphasis of Brandner's activity is on the comprehensive decoration of buildings, large paintings and large-scale murals. Transforming the architectural environment into complete works of art is both the philosophy behind his broad portfolio and the result of his extensive work. Brandner became known through numerous exhibitions in Germany and abroad. His work can be found in important private collections. Instagram @matthiasbrandnerberlin or visit www.atelier-brandner.de to see more.

9. Berlin contemporary artist CLAUDIA FAUTH has a studio in Berlin's Kreuzberg neighbourhood where she works as a visual and acoustic artist. Her paintings are often inspired by photographs taken on her extensive travels. She transfers these seemingly random impressions into photorealistic artworks such as the featured: "Reflection", 2016, oil on canvas, 240 x 170 cm. To see more of Claudia Fauth's work visit her website www.claudia-fauth.com or follow her on Instagram @studioclaudiafauth

10. Sydney based artist STEPHEN SKINNER creates alluring balance of colour and texture in abstract form. His unique rhythmic style is influenced by nature, movement, shapes and sounds. Using various medium he explores composition through an energetic process of destruction and excavation. Available for private and public commissions. Visit www.steveskinner.net or email info@steveskinner.net

11. Paintings that tell stories. Layers upon layer MERETE STEINVIK HAUGEN is creating a mysterious world for the observer to dive into. She has a love for commissions, with her innovative way to explore and tell the story of the customer. From Norway. Find her at Instagram @m_art.no or visit www.m-art.no

12. RODNEY DURSO, a New York based artist, works in mixed media; pulling his ideas from feelings, current events, design, architecture and music. Sometimes his work is created viscerally, at other times it's a deliberate, meditative practice. Visit www.rodneydurso.com or follow @rodneydurso on Instagram.

13. JUDITH BARATH is a gifted, multimedia, Hungarian artist, living in Chicago. Judith expertly taps into various genres of fine arts, creating unique masterpieces that have both traditional and contemporary elements to them. Her oil painting collections include beautiful floral scenes, vibrant cityscapes, breathtaking landscapes and also abstract works. She also creates digital art, exploring modern technology using a unique blend of colours, textures, emotions, creativity and depth. Visit www.judithbaratharts.com Instagram @photo_judith_barath_arts or Facebook @art.JBA

14. HENNIE VAN DE LANDE. Hennie's art is sold all over the world. With her famous quote - "It's not what you look at that matters, it's what YOU see" - Hennie shows her ability of letting go of meaning, enabling the viewer to create their own. Visit www.saatchiart.com/account/artworks/350780 or email hennievandelande@hotmail.com to get in touch.

15. SIOBHAN COONEY is an abstract artist. Her bold, unique style uses colour as its main device to create original art. In this piece she has used fluid acrylics on hand made paper, adding stitching for depth, tone and detail. To see more of her colourful work, visit www.siohhancooney.com or Instagram @siohhancooneyartist

16. TAMMY FLYNN SEYBOLD's large-scale images of beach glass and other ocean-side finds convey the transformative beauty that can arise from the forces of time and tide. A regional finalist in the Bombay Sapphire Artisan Series, her paintings have been exhibited in group shows in Toronto and Hong Kong, and a recent solo show in Vancouver. On Instagram @arteachday or visit www.tammyflynnseybold.com

17. SABRINA RUPPRECHT shows us Africa through her paintbrush using Pink - the colour of sensitivity and compassion - for her incredibly detailed paintings of endangered animals. Based in South Africa, this artist supports wildlife conservation and her large scale, acrylic on canvas pieces have gained fast popularity among collectors internationally. Visit www.sabrinarupprecht.com or Instagram @sabrinarupprechtart

