

APRIL 2019 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

22. NATALIE CORMAN is a Swiss artist who works from a converted tractor shed on the North York Moors. She paints mostly trees and landscapes, using oils and pastels. Inspired by Hokusai's Mount Fuji prints, she is currently working on '36 Views of Ben Tianavaig (Isle of Skye)'. She is participating in North Yorkshire Open Studios on 1st, 2nd, 8th and 9th June 2019. Visit www.corman.ch search @nataliecorman on Instagram, or email corman@bluewin.ch to find out more.

23. JUNE MCINTYRE is an artist living on the West Coast of Ireland. She works primarily with dyes on silk however her work is very varied and can be seen at her gallery in Dingle, County Kerry or at www.dingleartworks.com Email junemc@dingleartworks.com for more information.

24. JO GOUGH is a UK artist based in Cheshire. Her love of iconic landmarks, flowers and vibrant colours combine beautifully together to create nostalgic paintings of special places. Each piece is highly detailed and utterly unique. For further information, visit www.jogoughart.com follow her on Instagram @jogoughart or email jo@jogoughart.com

25. KATRINA SLADE's mixed media artwork is centred in wonderment and joy, infusing positivity into each work. She is an American artist who has found great inspiration from time living abroad in Asia and Europe. She is now living in New Brunswick, Canada. View her work at www.katrinaslade.com and on Instagram @katrina.slade.art. Contact her at hello@katrinaslade.com to find out more.

26. MARY WILLIAMS is an artist whose work is inspired by the New Forest and Hampshire coast. She is fascinated by the way in which ink and watercolours react with paper, evident in her atmospheric images. Visit www.marywilliamsartist.com and follow on Instagram @marysart8 for further information.

27. CAROLINE RILEY is an artist who works from a converted tractor shed on the North York Moors. She paints mostly trees and landscapes, using oils and pastels. Inspired by Hokusai's Mount Fuji prints, she is currently working on '36 Views of Ben Tianavaig (Isle of Skye)'. She is participating in North Yorkshire Open Studios on 1st, 2nd, 8th and 9th June 2019. Visit www.carolinerileyart.com and email carolrileyart@gmail.com to find out more.

28. RODNEY DURSO, a New York based artist, works in mixed media; pulling his ideas from emotions, current events, design, architecture and music. Sometimes his work is created viscerally, at other times it's a deliberate, meditative practice. Visit www.rodneydurso.com and follow on Instagram @rodneydurso for more information.

29. CHELSEA DAVINE is an artist, well known for her use of beautiful gold leaf in her paintings. Seen here is "Golden Leaves in Spring", 2018, with warm, autumnal tones. She will be exhibiting at the Chiaroscuro Solo Show at The Russell Gallery from 21st February 2019 to 10th March 2019. Visit www.chelsea-davine.com and search @chelseadavine on Instagram for further information.

30. AIMEE ERICKSON is an oil painter living in Portland, Oregon. With a background in illustration, her work is grounded in traditional realism, influenced by the principles of design and inspired by nature and human experience. See more of her stunning pieces at aimeeerickson.com or search @laim on Instagram.

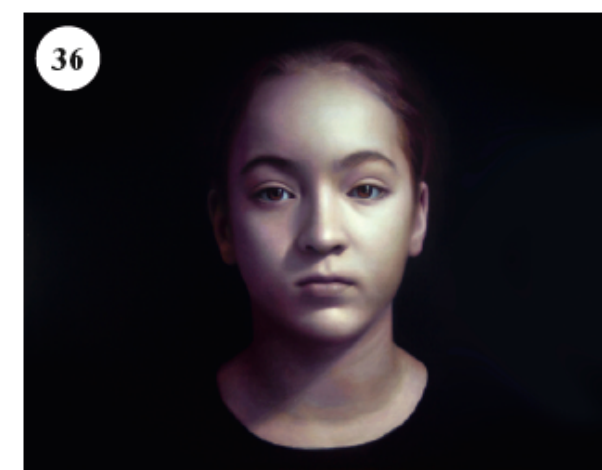

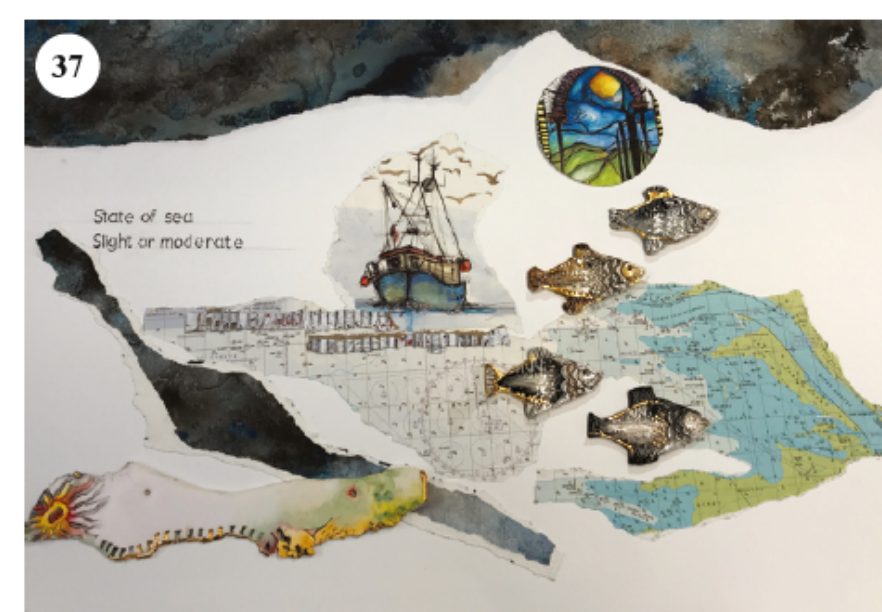

31. STEPHEN FITZGERALD is a Cotswolds based artist, known for his figurative colouristic style. His use of bold colours and country themes combine to create unique pieces of art. For a personal touch, ask about commissions. Call 07983 722207, email fitzarty3@gmail.com and visit sf-country-chic.com or stephen-fitzgerald.co.uk for more details.

32. HELEN BECKER is an acrylic collage painter from Moab, Utah, in USA who creates unique abstract pieces based on her "Highway Series". Her works are inspired by roads and highway interchange configurations and by what it means to travel and move. Visit www.helenbeckercollagepainting.com or email hbecker433@gmail.com for more information.

33. BIANCA ROSEN is a talented artist inspired by nature, whose focal point is colour and contrast. Using a mix of watercolours, inks and acrylic paints, Bianca creates complex visual effects. To commission a piece or find out more, visit www.biancarosen.com and follow on Instagram @artbybianca

JUNE 2019 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

33. VANESSA STOCKARD is an Australian artist who studied Art History at the University of Sydney. She has exhibited at several events, in both solo and group environments. Visit www.vanessastockard.com.au or www.vanrensburg-galleries.com and follow on Instagram @vanessastockard for further information.

34. MICHAELA RINALDI is renowned for her contemporary abstract art. She is a colourist and figures are her flavour. The uniqueness of her generous pieces are depicted by how well she knows herself, when you look at her work it moves and evokes feelings that connect with you and define a meeting point. Visit www.michaelarinaldi.com or email michaela@cybersmart.co.za to find out more.

35. RODNEY DURSO is a New York based mixed media artist, who pulls his ideas from emotions, current events, design, architecture and music. Most recently exhibiting at ArtBasel and ArtBasel Miami, The Center for Contemporary Political Art in Washington DC, and international group shows in Venice, Italy. Visit www.rodneydurso.com or search @rodneydurso on Instagram to find out more.

36. Described as a master of contemporary portrait painting, MARCUS CALLUM is a multiple award-winning artist who trained in New York and Sydney. His paintings are charged with immense beauty, designed to invoke an emotional response, they convey a sense of deep psychological insight. Commission a portrait by contacting the studio at info@marcuscallum.com or visiting www.marcuscallum.com Follow on Instagram @marcuscallum

37. VICI BLACKBURN's mixed media collages reflect island life where the shipping forecast's lyrical beauty has real life implications. Visit www.viciblackburn.com or email viciblackburncreates@gmail.com for more details.

38. British artist EMILY CURTIS builds up her paintings over many layers of glazing acrylic paint; this creates beautiful depth through complex workings with colour. She aims to promote the feeling of capturing an instant in time on canvas. Visit www.emily-curtis.com follow on Instagram @e.r.curtis or email info@emily-curtis.com for more information.

39. Inspired by the eclectic mix of objects found in her family home, KIATA MASON depicts still life compositions that draw on history, memories, her current surrounds as well as her hopes for the future. She says, "my work is about empathy, compassion, and the connection between people; that tie us together." Represented by AK Bellinger Gallery. Email akbellinger@outlook.com and follow on Instagram @allisonkatebellinger for more information.

40. PETRA BERNSTEIN, originally from Germany, is a US based artist who uses both painting and photography to create nature inspired artwork. In her latest series, Petra is exploring the abstraction of water. 'Wicomico Reflections' is an archival print that depicts a close up view of a complex water surface. Visit www.petrabernstein.com or Instagram @petra.bernstein for more information.

41. FELICITY RAE JONES is an artist taught by the wilds of Alaska. By studying the intricacies of God's creation, this self-taught artist is able to draw fantastical designs that leave the viewer seeing more with each glance. Visit FelicityRaeJones.com or email FJcreationsAK@gmail.com to find out more.

42. ALASTAIR FAULKNER is an artist based in Dundee, Scotland who specialises in expressive and contemporary landscapes, in addition to night cityscapes in oil paint. He is inspired by the Scottish landscape and has undertaken commissions from clients across the world, such as in Dubai and Hong Kong. For more information, visit www.alfaulknerart.com or follow @mr_alfaulkner on Instagram.